

Position title: Supervisor and Sales Advisors

Closing date: 30th June 2008

Type: Full Time and part time, permanent roles.

Hours: Various positions covering 7 days trading. From full time Supervisory roles to 4 hour Sales Advisor contracts.

Rate of pay: Competitive salary, plus excellent benefits

Job description:

Size zero. Not big, not clever, and, to our minds, definitely not what women are about! By using our devilishly clever expertise to create fantastic fashion for curvy women, at evans we really do help our customers love what they see.

We are currently recruiting for various positions in our new White City Store within Westfield London to be opened in October 2008. These include Top Level Supervisors who work closely with the managers to inspire the rest of the team to provide an exceptional customer experience; they hold a position of responsibility, often being key holders and undertake management duties. Previous Supervisory experience is a must, preferably in fashion retail.

We are also looking for a brand new team of Sales Advisors. Covering a variety of full and part time positions our Sales Advisors are fashion focused, enthusiastic and have a real passion for delivering great personal service to our customers. Previous retail experience, especially in fashion, is preferable but not essential.

So what's in it for you? In addition to an exciting career where you can develop and progress, you'll also enjoy fantastic discounts, a fabulous fashion wear allowance, 25 days holiday, pension, incentives and lots more....

Sound like something that would interest you? If you think you've got what it takes then click on the link below to apply:

Contact information: Please apply via our careers website:
www.evans.co.uk/careers

You'll find lots more information about evans and will also be able to search our Current Vacancies for details of the White City roles.